- It's a really complex subject!*

- 3 Let us know an aspect of the session that you found really helpful or meaningful
- It is really helpful to understand the materials and have database to search for their history.*
- I found the databases and the search criteria useful to know about. I suppose also the acknowledgement of how complex it can be to research materials - and ways to go about it e.g. look at historical information to inform current research.*
- database resooources*
- way to look at an object more contextually*
- research the history of a material*

- 4 What do you intend to explore further/ do differently as a result of the workshop?
- I am planning to research my materials more in depth while working with them in the future for my practice.*
- I would probably use the approaches mentioned above but also ask the librarians next time i do a search as I found the plastics research i did independently quite difficult*
- understand the elements of my materials*
